

	Notification Form Type	GP Co-Prescribing Review	Is UDS Required?	Age Restriction	Stimulants Allowed For Other Dx?	Max Dose Specified?
ACT	As for all S8 forms, approval required beyond 2 months treatment.	Co-manage (only one prescriber at a time). Authority up to 3 years.	No	< 4	Yes	D40mg/MP60mg
NSW	Proceed with prior general approval. Specific stimulant form for each patient.	Yes (rarely under 18). Annual review.	No	< 4, > 70, Paed up to 25	Yes	D30mg/MP60mg
NT	Specific stimulant form, wait for approval.	Co-manage (only one prescriber at a time). Bi-annual review.	No	< 4	Unlikely. Check with Med & Poisons Control.	No
QLD	Proceed with prior general approval (known as Patient-Class Approval).	Yes. Annual review.	No "Reminder"	< 4	Yes	D40mg/R80mg
SA	As for all S8 forms, approval required beyond 2 months treatment.	After specialist initial appt if deemed suitable. Review up to 5 years.	No	Paed up to 25	Yes	No
TAS	Specific stimulant form, phone or wait for approval.	Co-manage (only one prescriber at a time). 12 - 24 months review.	No "Encouraged"	< 4, > 70, Paed up to 25	Yes	D30mg/MP60mg
VIC	Simple notification <18. For 18+, approval permit required beyond 8 weeks treatment, as for all S8 forms.	Co-manage (only one prescriber at a time). Bi-annual review.	No	No. "Clinical Discretion"	Yes	No
WA	Proceed with prior general approval. Specific stimulant form for each patient.	Yes, when stable. Annual review.	Yes "Should" (annual)	Paed up to 25	Yes	D60mg/MP120mg
NZ	Specific stimulant form, proceed with treatment, all specialists have auto approval. May be funding/Pharmac delay.	Co-manage, annual specialist review. In person not mandatory.	No	< 6 only paed or child psych	Yes	No